

Across

1. to cause physical pain or injury or mental anguish to someone
4. to be liked or accepted by many people
8. keep something from happening
9. a feeling of worry or unease
11. opposite of being excluded
16. come between so as to prevent or alter a result or course of events.
18. a strong feeling of annoyance, displeasure, or hostility
19. resentment or jealousy of another person
20. to deal with something difficult
21. to cause pain or injury to someone
23. allow or permit
25. resentment toward another person
27. dismiss as inadequate, inappropriate, or not to one's taste
28. unfriendly, antagonistic
29. to be warmhearted and considerate to others
30. a sensitivity to or intuitive understanding of
31. a person present in a situation but not involved

Down

2. the act of refusing to accept
3. a person who uses strength or power to harm or intimidate those who are weaker
5. to be able to understand and share another person's feelings
6. a solemn promise
7. to subject someone to unnecessary cruelty
10. circulating gossip
12. a task or situation that tests someone's abilities
13. speak to or treat with disrespect
14. a feeling or belief that you do something well
15. a person who lacks the courage to do or endure dangerous or unpleasant things
17. to give assistance or show approval
19. the ability to understand and share the feelings of another
22. behaving in an angry or violent way towards someone
24. to cause someone to feel very hurt or insulted
26. a person holds the highest position and most control over others