

GREEK ORTHODOX ARCHDIOCESE OF AMERICA

GREEK ORTHODOX LADIES PHILOPTOCHOS SOCIETY, Inc.

NATIONAL PHILOPTOCHOS HIRES DEVELOPMENT & INFORMATION OFFICER

For Immediate Release July 11, 2018:

The Greek Orthodox Ladies Philoptochos Society, Inc. is pleased to announce the hiring of Ms. Amy Kalogeropoulos from Worcester, MA to fill the newly established position of Development & Information Officer. Ms. Kalogeropoulos will join the current staff of 4 at the national office: Helen Lavorata, Director; Stella Xikis, Accountant/Bookkeeper; Paulette Geanacopoulos, Social Worker; and Kay Brakatselos, Administrative Assistant. In addition to the office staff in New York, Vivian Siempos Haidas provides assistance to the Public Relations Committee, working remotely from Dennis, MA.

Ms. Kalogeropoulos will be responsible for all aspects of communications and operational systems for the National Philoptochos office. In addition, she is charged with developing a strategic plan to ensure the relevance of the Greek Orthodox Ladies Philoptochos Society past their 100th anniversary.

Ms. Kalogeropoulos graduated from Assumption College, Worcester, MA with a degree in Social and Rehabilitative Science. Before joining Philoptochos, she served as Director of Operations at the Disability Policy Consortium, Malden MA, where she was responsible for all aspects of operations and programming. She is also skilled in social media, marketing management, and is familiar with nonprofit regulations and policies.

In addition, she is a member of Saint Spyridon Greek Orthodox Church in Worcester, MA, where she has chaired many aspects of the church festival, including serving as Food Line Coordinator in 2014. An active member of her Philoptochos chapter and formerly of the Metropolis of Boston Philoptochos Board, she says, "Being a part of Philoptochos is a true labor of love."

For additional information, please contact: Barbara Pasis, Public Relations Co-Chair, at bpasis@yahoo.com.