THE GREEK ORTHODOX LADIES PHILOPTOCHOS SOCIETY MOVES TO NEW HOME THE PHILOPTOCHOS CENTER OF PHILANTHROPY

For immediate release: August 26, 2013

New York, NY – With the blessings of His Eminence Archbishop Demetrios of America, National Philoptochos President Aphrodite Skeadas is pleased to announce that the Greek Orthodox Ladies Philoptochos Society has moved into its new home, the Philoptochos Center of Philanthropy at 126 East 37th Street, New York, New York, 10016.

All National Philoptochos operations are now located in our new home. National Philoptochos retains the same phone and fax numbers, however all correspondence is now sent to the new address, 126 East 37th Street, New York, New York, 10016.

National Philoptochos will occupy the first two levels of the five-story townhouse that consists of both professional space and residential units in the Murray Hill area near Grand Central Station. The United Nations, universities, medical centers and office buildings are all within walking distance.

The long anticipated move to the Philoptochos Center of Philanthropy culminates a three year campaign to secure a permanent National Philoptochos home where National Philoptochos will continue its mission to serve and help those in need and allow for expanded services and programs for the Philoptochos Chapters nationwide.
